DATES TO OCTOBER 20.

Troubles between the Whites and Blacks.

New York, Oct. [illegible] The Herald's Charleston [illegible] between the whites and [illegible] Fifty picked men [illegible] The freedmen are [illegible] whites, who [illegible] for the purpose of bringing [illegible] the city [illegible] about twenty miles distant [illegible] The boat [illegible] which they were stripped [illegible] General [illegible] was held and [illegible] to prevent further disturbance [illegible]

Foreign Affairs.

[illegible] The [illegible] from Liverpool [illegible] Londonderry, Oct. [illegible] has arrived.

A meeting was called in London of persons interested in [illegible] American securities [illegible] in consequence of the war with a view to forming a commission. The securities in respect to which this agitation is [illegible] the bonds of Virginia, Louisiana, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and the various railways and banks in the States, the whole of which represent a very heavy amount. [illegible]

The [illegible] says [illegible] If the United States [illegible] to arrange for funding the arrears of dividends, it is probable the creditors will be disposed to meet them half way. In regard to the published list of persons offering for the Confederate loan, additional details [illegible]

The [illegible] calls the list a [illegible] imposition, and says the statement that [illegible] of Confederate [illegible] the amount of [illegible] 10,000 in our money, is a complete falsehood. The [illegible] and insulting comments which the Star has based on the original falsehood are therefore entirely unfounded. No reputation can be injured by the levity which [illegible] the general authority of the New York Herald, and then makes them the [illegible] The Morning Star having included Gladstone in the list, and called on him for an explanation, publishes the following letter [illegible] from that gentleman:

[illegible] The Chancellor of the Exchequer to the [illegible] and that my name has been [illegible] in the Confederate list [illegible]

[illegible] Ashley writes to the Times that at no time had he any share or interest in the Confederate loan. [illegible] proprietor of the [illegible] writes to that journal that he never had applied for any of the loan; that if the rest of the list be like that which is certain no dependence can be placed on it.

Important American torpedo experiments took place at Chatham on the [illegible]th, under direction of Donald McKay and [illegible] in presence of the Lords of the Admiralty. Numerous operations took place, the most important being the destruction of the old sailing frigate [illegible]. A 75 pounder torpedo was placed at depth of seven feet below the vessel's keel. When the electric spark communicated there was a dull report, the vessel quivered, and in a few minutes settled quietly down on an even keel. Not a splinter shot into the air.

Fenian arrests continue. The number in all places is about 200. A suspicious vessel, bearing the American flag, supposed to be one of those expected with arms, appeared off Queenstown, but again put to sea. The strange vessel was said to have sent a letter on shore which was opened and found to contain a bill for £1,000 in favor of a number of members of the Fenian organization.

The annual meeting of the Social Science Association was in session at Sheffield. Lord Brougham was present.

In France the political news was unimportant. Bourse dull.

A semi-official Berlin paper alluding to the meeting between the Emperor Napoleon and Count Von Bismarck affirms that it cannot be without political importance and effect.

The publication by the American press of the names of the alleged holders of the Confederate loan, had caused much excitement. Laird authorizes the Liverpool papers to say that he never was interested in any [illegible]

The examination of the Fenians at Dublin was concluded October [illegible]. The additional evidence developed nothing new. Five prisoners were committed for trial for high treason. The prisoners denied the imputations that an indiscriminate slaughter of the aristocratic class was ever meditated. Arrests continue in various parts of the interior. It is stated that the British Government has proposed to [illegible] for the purchase of the Hudson Bay territory.

The Freedmen.

New Orleans, Oct. 18.—An important circular has been issued by the freedmen's bureau, regulating [illegible] Freedmen are [illegible] must labor for their existence and not expect further [illegible] Gen. Tullock arrived from Washington, and is reported to succeed the present superintendent of freedmen. No further military interference is expected regarding registry of voters.

Louisiana News.

New York, Oct. 18.—The [illegible] Washington special dispatch says that matters from Louisiana have become [illegible] that much confusion and trouble prevails in that State [illegible] parishes refuse and others are reluctant to recognize Wells as legal Governor.

New Orleans, Oct. 13.—Governor Wells has [illegible] calling for proposals to re[illegible] at the expense of the State. A [illegible] Wells from [illegible] asking him to take steps to [illegible] in that section [illegible] superintendent of the New Orleans and Jackson railroad.

Negro Troops Mustered Out.

New York, Oct. [illegible] The Herald's correspondent from Brownsville, Texas, and New Orleans [illegible] considerable sensation and apparently [illegible] General [illegible] directing the mustering out of a large number of colored troops [illegible] under Gen. [illegible] colored soldiers from States [illegible] Massachusetts.

Sickness among the Troops.

Texas News.

New Orleans, Oct. [illegible] [illegible]

An [illegible] newspaper writer speaks of [illegible]

CONTINUED PEACE.—The Richmond Republic says: "Instead of wanting to 'try it again,' the people of the South never want to see or hear of war, either with the people of the North or with any other people under the sun. They never want to see a sword or hear a musket. They are sick, sore, nauseated to the death with the whole infernal paraphernalia of war. If there were no other cause, the appalling selfishness and callous indifference then manifested to the welfare of the private, and of every one else who had no official rank, would prevent the people of the South from ever going into such a war again, even against an acknowledged tyrant. They will sooner submit peacefully even to oppression, injustice and inequality than endure the same evils from their own bomb proofs with war superadded. Do those wiseacres who talk of the South, 'trying it again' ever reflect upon the reason of the sudden collapse of the armies of the Confederacy? It was because two thirds of these armies had deserted, and the two thirds deserted because they saw that they were forever to be exposed to suffering and death, with their families ragged and starving at home, whilst a privileged class were permitted to riot in luxury and security, shouting all the while, 'fight to the last ditch,' 'die in the last man,' meaning by the last ditch any spot but their own bomb proofs, and by the last man, anybody and everybody but themselves.

"We want no more of war. We find that war is an institution in which the many suffer for the benefit of the few, in which the poor fight the battles and others get the glory and emoluments. A war above all, against a Government which does not seek to oppress the poor, and the permanency of which, is the best security against all war, is a piece of insanity which we will never indulge in again. Once is enough. If the 'bomb proofs,' few in number and contemptible in influence, ever undertake to 'try it again,' we will engage that without calling in the aid of a single platoon of United States soldiers, they will be put down so thoroughly that even they will never have the nerve to utter that syllable which comprises in itself all human curses—war."

THE MEXICAN QUESTION.—The London Times, commenting on the Mexican question says:

The Emperor of the French in organizing and effecting the conquest of Mexico set the famous Monroe doctrine at defiance. He did what the Americans had declared no European power should ever be permitted to do. He established a monarchical government under the protectorate of France upon the American continent, and he holds his grounds with as much success and as hopeful a prospect as such an enterprise admitted. Mexico is actually an Empire ruled by a European sovereign, supported by European bayonets. The Americans must either let all this pass, or they must resent it at the cost of war, and the perplexities of the alternative may be inferred from the contradictory reports which have recently reached us. In one part of our intelligence yesterday it was stated that the Americans would almost certainly fight, in another, and that happily the latest, it is authoritatively announced that the army on which this fighting would have devolved is to be immediately disbanded.

We shall hail such a decision with unalloyed satisfaction, but it is probable nevertheless that the question is rather suspended than resolved. The Americans cannot fail to draw encouragement from the notorious difficulties of the case itself. They know full well that France has got a bad bargain, and that Frenchmen are perfectly alive to the fact. France would not only have to fight the United States at a great disadvantage, but she would be fighting for a prize held in no kind of esteem. For once, war and conquest have proved unpopular in France, and there is scarcely a party or class in the State that does not regard the Mexican expedition with strong dislike. Nor is the Emperor himself at all insensible to the charges and risks of the enterprise. It has cost him much as it stands, and has returned very little: add an American war to the account, and the result would be alarming.

GENERAL BARRIOS SHOT.—Among other items of news brought by the Golden City from Central America is one to the effect that the Government of Salvador had tried ex-President Gen. Barrios by court martial, and sentenced him to be shot. The unfortunate man was advised of his sentence at 11 o'clock on the night of the 28th August, and at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 29th he was shot, being refused even three hours time to arrange his worldly affairs. The reason assigned by the authorities of Salvador for the act is, that the death of Barrios was a necessity for the peace of the republic. As yet, we have no reliable means of knowing what feeling this act has caused in Salvador; but from what we can judge, it has met with censure. In Nicaragua, the procedure has given rise to a harsh dissatisfaction against Salvador, as the former Government had delivered Barrios over to the latter, on the express stipulation that his life, under any circumstances was to be spared, and the serious breach of faith on the part of Salvador will doubtless lead to an unfriendly discussion, and probably to the declaration of war between the two republics. In Panama the news of the death of Barrios has been received with profound regret, and given rise to expressions of the utmost horror both from natives and foreigners, as it no doubt also will be in the United States and Europe.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 24, 1865

Importance of Manufacture.

One of Oregon's greatest drawbacks is found in the fact that she manufactures very little for herself. The money of this State is constantly going abroad to pay for many articles which we ought to manufacture at home. Our people are accustomed to boast of the amount of gold they send away, and refer thereto as if this were an indication of the real wealth of the State. This is a most erroneous idea. The gold we export is simply a measure of the value of the commodities we consume. This money is really no part of the capital of the country, since it is not employed in any of the numerous fields of production that are open here. It is rather a part of the capital of manufacturers abroad, because it is constantly drawn from us by them to support their business. They receive the profits and grow rich, while we are content to work for money merely to buy what it is their interest to sell. Were we to begin to manufacture more largely for ourselves, the capital these enterprises would require would be employed at once in the production of more wealth among us, and we should keep our principal at home, whereas it is now to all practical purposes invested elsewhere for the benefit of others than ourselves.

It is not expected that we will import raw material from other countries, and make it up here. We ought to go to work more energetically than heretofore upon the materials which our own State affords. The auri fames possesses so many people here that it is difficult to induce them to realize that there is profit in any scheme which is not connected with gold mining. Here are iron mines easy of access, which will be a source of wealth long after our gold fields cease to yield their treasures. In several parts of the State salt can be made in any quantities. All kinds of wooden ware should be made here cheaper than it could be brought from elsewhere. We ought to commence to make our own agricultural implements. There is an almost endless variety of goods which we could manufacture at home as easy as to give other people the profits of making them. We are aware that this business of manufacturing must have a gradual growth, but it seems very evident to us that these several branches of industry are not keeping pace with the progress and wants of the State.

HAYDEN'S LETTER.—In the last number of the Democratic Review there is a letter in reference to the Special Session of the Legislature, signed by Ben Hayden, a person of some notoriety in the Willamette Valley.

It is not often we find so much misrepresentation and the expression of such bitter feeling in so few words, as appears in this letter. That the writer is a misanthrope and a man of no political principle, is apparent from his own language alone; and this unpleasant fact is but too strongly corroborated by his personal history.

As a member of the Union party of this State, he assisted in organizing it — made flaming speeches in different counties as a leader of the movement. When Jo. Lane returned from Washington City, and passed through the valley to his home in Umpqua, he stopped over night at Dallas, where Hayden lives. So violently was the ex-Senator despised by his former constituents at that place, that they hung him in effigy. Hayden participated in the movement, and contributed money to pay for the powder used on the occasion. He made himself notorious by his persistent denunciations of Lane's official conduct.

At that time Bush wanted to be United States Senator from Oregon, and Hayden was willing to be nominally Governor while Bush should be the real officer, and make use of the Executive influence to advance his Senatorial interests. The Union Convention was held and Ben was left out. After such a waste of words and powder, Hayden thought he ought to have something—a bucket of water and a bar of soap would have been the most useful to him. Failing in the realization of his gubernatorial aspirations, Hayden next sought the Judgeship of Polk county. Judge Moore defeated him in the Union County Convention, and was elected by the people. Ben all at once discovered that the Union party had changed—become demoralized and abolitionized, and that the Democracy had come right around on his side. Since then he has been a rampant Democrat. His ambition is not yet satisfied; it never will be, and it is probable that whenever he thinks it will best serve his purpose he will be ready for another somerset.

In his late letter, he says that honest tax-payers generally, in his county, are opposed to the extra session. This statement is evidently untrue. Union men generally in that county, as in other portions of the State, are strongly in favor of the extra session, and think that the Governor would have been untrue to the country and the party that elected him if he had not given the State an opportunity to vote in favor of freedom.

He says that the session will cost from fifty to a hundred thousand dollars. Poor Ben! if you know anything about it you know that there never has been a session of the Legislature in Oregon that cost half that sum. The session ought to be and will be a short one, and it need not cost over six thousand dollars.

He says: "Why not order elections in Linn and Umatilla?" Simply because there are no vacancies in these counties. We are not apprised of any vacancies in Linn, and we suppose the son of his democratic friend whom he helped hang in effigy, still represents Umatilla.

He further says that it would be unwise to run democratic candidates under the call. Doubtless he thinks so because he knows they will be defeated and the real weakness of his party will be manifested. Although the democracy of Polk spent large sums of money, imported voters and kept them till after the election, the party was badly beaten, as it will be again. Now these leaders are the men who "ask nothing but what is legal, constitutional and right." Fit subjects these to talk about elections called for "partisan purposes, and that of a very low order."

Again, he says: "Let the powers that be, beware"—certain things "will not be submitted to for a moment by the democracy." Whew! Will Soap creek really rebel? In the East, where the democracy tried that experiment, they found it dangerous and expensive. It is a great deal safer to simply hang men in effigy. Have you seen Jones? Talk big, Ben—keep the old guard together and they will be less expensive and do you just as much good as the imported voters did.

OUR CONGRESSMAN IN MISSOURI.—On the 31st of August a grand barbecue was given at Louisiana, Missouri, to the returned soldiers of Pike county, Missouri, and Pike county, Illinois. Speeches were made by several persons. Hon. J. H. D. Henderson of this State was present. The correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat thus speaks of him:

Mr. Henderson, of Oregon, recently elected member of Congress from that State was then introduced, and endorsed the radical party of Missouri, pledging himself to stand by them. He indicated by his speech that he is a man.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.—Late advices from Victoria speak of the discovery of gold in great quantities on Bridge river, a stream that enters Fraser river high up in the mountains. Little news of a definite character has yet been received from the field of the reported discoveries.

The State Journal says, Pat Malone has gone to San Francisco to get material to start a new paper in Idaho, and will soon leave Oregon for that Territory.

By Overland Telegraph.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 20.

Favorable Situation of Things in Texas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Post's Washington dispatch says the Freedmen's Bureau received dispatches from Texas to-day, which gave very favorable accounts of the condition of affairs. Only ten Freedmen are subsisted at the Government expense [illegible]. Labor is in great demand throughout the State.

Haytien News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Information from Hayti says the only vessel Salnave had employed in the blockade of rebel ports had been captured by a party of three hundred [illegible] at last accounts was at Port au Prince.

Financial.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Herald says the Secretary of the Treasury has decided to receive deposits of gold and issue therefor certificates payable on demand in gold. These gold notes will be receivable for customs and will be largely used in adjusting balances in New York.

The fears expressed of negro insurrections in the South have been brought to notice but are considered groundless. An eye will doubtless be kept on matters.

Champ Ferguson Hanged.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 20.—The notorious guerrilla Champ Ferguson was hanged to-day. The execution was strictly private.

A stage coach for Lebanon, Tenn., on Tuesday was attacked by highwaymen. Several shots were fired but no damage done.

The Cholera—Stephens Calls on the President.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Post's special says the State Department has received dispatches [illegible] the United States consuls showing that the cholera is rapidly on the decline in Italy, Constantinople and elsewhere.

Alexander H. Stephens called on the President this morning. The interview was of a private character.

Jeff. Davis' Trial.

NEW YORK, October 20.—A Washington dispatch to a Philadelphia paper says the friends of Jeff. Davis have expressed a desire that his trial [illegible]. The desire comes originally from Davis, who it is said has declared [illegible] that therefore the Government will do him a great favor by arraigning him at the earliest possible moment. The recent favorable change in the every day life is entirely the work of the President, and at this time Davis has about everything he could ask save liberty itself and the presence of his family.

The Takers of the Rebel Loan in England.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The steamer Scotia from Liverpool Oct. 7th, and Queenstown the 8th, has arrived.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 7th.—[illegible] continues to be published by alleged sufferers in the Confederate loan. Lord Wharncliffe, Peacock and O'Keefe deny ever having had any interest in it. Mr. Sampson, city editor of the London Times writes to the Star that he not only never had any stock, but declined to accept a proffered gift of it when the loan was introduced. W. S. Lindsay owns up to a small investment, but [illegible] of the part named. He [illegible] regret that the South did not achieve her independence.

The Russian Telegraph Expedition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—The bark Palmetto, Capt. Anderson arrived here this afternoon, bringing the latest news from the Russian Telegraph Expedition. The Palmetto took up a cargo of coal to the Expedition, and left Plover Bay, Behring's straits, on the 2d of September. The steamer George S. Wright, with Colonel Bulkley and his party, was at Plover Bay when the Palmetto left. In a private letter written by the Colonel, he says, we have had a gale from the eastward accompanied by snow, for two days. This morning the keen cold wind is pouring down from the north. Ice is making at the head of the bay, and winter is fast coming with long nights and but little sunshine. The explorations thus far, have developed the fact that the Kwichpak river is the same as the Yukon, and is navigable for many months up to English fort. Kennicott, with the party sent to explore the route from the mouth of the Yukon to New Westminster, British Columbia was left at Fort St. Nicholas. They will go up the Yukon or Kwichpak on a small steamer, 15 feet in length, taken from here by the party to the head of navigation, and then cross with reindeer or on foot over the ice and snow until they strike settlements on the American side. The party found the earth on the American side thawed to an average depth of ten inches, but frozen below to an unknown depth on their arrival in September. The country on the American shore was rolling and broken, but not high, and destitute of timber. Grantly Harbor was found to be best for landing the cable on the American side. It is a safe harbor with a good hard bottom. From this point soundings were made across the entrance of St. Lawrence Bay. The bottom was found to be very favorable, being mud and gravel all the way. The party found ice off St. Lawrence Bay for the first time. This bay is not favorable for laying the cable, as it is shallow and exposed to south east gales. Mechime Bay was found full of ice. Penkaker Bay was found to be a good harbor, well suited for landing a cable. The Asiatic coast was found entirely destitute of timber, and more mountainous than the American. The ground was found thawed to a depth of thirty inches, and frozen below that. When the Palmetto left ice was forming constantly, the northwest wind was bitterly cold, and winter was fast approaching.

The barque Golden Gate will return next January.

The steamer Geo. S. Wright, with Col. B. will return in November next.

The schooner Milton Badger returns here to winter.

The expedition learned from the Indians that a few days before their arrival the rebel pirate Shenandoah had made its appearance in those waters and had destroyed several vessels.

Three of the crew of the Badger were left on shore with the Indians. One of them was serving on the Geo. Wright.

The last seen of the pirate she was heading south.

These were probably the same whalers of whose destruction we have already had the particulars.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 22.—All the flags in the city were at half-mast yesterday from morning till night in respect to the memory of the late General Wright, commander of the Department of the Columbia, and formerly Commander of the Department of the Pacific. The funeral services took place at Calvary Church [illegible]. The coffins containing the remains of General and Mrs. Wright were placed together in front of the pulpit, and bore the appropriate designation of the rank and services of the deceased. At the close of the services the coffins were brought out and placed in hearses side by side, and the procession formed for the march to the Sacramento steamboat wharf. At the entrance to the wharf the escort formed in double lines and presented arms as the coffins were borne to the boat, on which they were taken in charge by the special guard of honor to Sacramento.

Corporal Juan Perez of Company B, Battalion Native Californian, is to be shot at San Juan south, by order of court martial, on Friday next, for killing an Indian.

Mrs. Bridget Baldwin, who cut her head off on Friday morning, still lives, being sustained by fluids fed into the throat with a syringe, and it is thought she will recover.

The Opposition steamer America arrived this morning fourteen days from San Juan del Sur; also the ship [illegible], twenty three days from Shanghae.

The weather has been cloudy all day.

Two barques, the [illegible] and [illegible], have arrived from the Arctic Ocean with cargoes of oil within the past two days. The Shenandoah did not utterly destroy the whaling fleet after all.

By the arrival of the bark [illegible], from Japan, we have dates to September 24. Intelligence has been received that the Tycoon narrowly escaped assassination on his journey to Osaca. The Daimio [illegible] Sama No Sho, had planned that on the arrival of the Tycoon at his capital, [illegible] an attempt was to be made on his life. [illegible] The conspirators were arrested.

A fatal shooting affray occurred near Sumnertown about sunrise this morning, growing out of a disputed title to a quartz mine. The fight was between Wm. Harrison on one side and H. W. Williams and —— Shirley, on the other. Williams was killed, being shot through the body, the ball entering under the right arm. Shirley was dangerously wounded, being shot in two places, one ball striking him in the stomach. Harrison was shot through the left arm.

Sailed, Oct. 21, bark Oak Hill, Puget Sound; brig Kentucky, Humboldt. Oct. 22, ship [illegible], Bellingham Bay; bark [illegible], Portland; bark Massachusetts, Puget Sound; schooner H. L. Rouse, Umpqua.

The Markets.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—New York dispatches of the 21st inst. quote gold [illegible] and sterling exchange 109 [illegible]. The share market rallied to-day with a whole list of mining stocks selling at [illegible]. Yellow Jacket advanced $30; [illegible] $15; Belcher, $80; Potosi and Chollar, each $40; Ophir $1; Hale & Norcross, $25.

Legal Tenders nominally 71.

We have Honolulu dates to the 26th of September. Private letters report [illegible] scarcity of [illegible] Honolulu.

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune's Correspondent.

1,000 COPIES SELLING PER DAY!

THE MOST INTERESTING AND EXCITING BOOK ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling through the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets both East and West during the first two years of the Rebellion, his thrilling capture, his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons, his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war than any other work yet published.

Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but none of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller or more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' rebellion than is given in the superstriking narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

[illegible] FOR THE DESTITUTE.—At the late meeting of [illegible] relief committee appointments were made [illegible] who are to ascertain what number of [illegible] under charge of Mr. M[illegible] at Seattle [illegible] employment in this city. The committee [illegible] we understand the matter to learn the [illegible] of want that may be at present existing in the city [illegible] and suffering are indigenous to all populous [illegible] and it is hardly possible that this [illegible] to the rule. The poor we always have [illegible] from causes which are [illegible]. It seems that we have among us [illegible] will always be likely to be [illegible] [illegible] either in [illegible] peril of being thrust into [illegible] by the changes of fortune. [illegible] together and [illegible] the establishment of [illegible] calculated to ameliorate the condition of the [illegible] poor. We believe that in Portland [illegible] even more in proportion than in [illegible] the beautiful sentiment [illegible] to the poor [illegible] in its full intent [illegible] frank, free and kind hearted, given to [illegible] and ready to relieve the suffering in all that [illegible] would dictate. Yet [illegible] should be an association having for its purpose [illegible] relief of the poor and destitute [illegible] and beggary. The first two purposes being [illegible] and benevolent [illegible] toward the worthy [illegible] unfortunate and the latter charity toward the [illegible] at large. An association based upon [illegible] been the means of accomplishing much [illegible] in San Francisco [illegible] of the [illegible] poor, and pretty effectually relieving that city [illegible] the curse of professional street beggars, who [illegible] at all the street corners [illegible] and were a set of miserable [illegible] [illegible] deserving, and undoubtedly [illegible] the city, using their calling [illegible] as spies and informers for the burglars and [illegible] [illegible] the place. The imminent [illegible] the ground for a charitable organization in Portland [illegible] certain that our citizens will soon be called upon [illegible] formation of this class, and they should [illegible] all the movement to the extent of their ability [illegible] contemporary of the Dalles, is urging [illegible] existing for the endowment of [illegible] at that place, where the indigent may be [illegible]. We shall not enter into details to show [illegible] an institution should receive attention [illegible] that it should be located in Portland [illegible] thinking men [illegible] Let the organization [illegible] be perfected at once, then such [illegible] [illegible] in the matter of a State asylum [illegible] of poor, can be easily presented to the [illegible] The necessities now are for [illegible] action for immediate want.

PETITION FOR RELIEF.—We [illegible] water on any project calculated to benefit [illegible] of Portland, and our past [illegible] at all times ready and willing to admit [illegible] claims of the Department. But we [illegible] of Columbian Engine Company for [illegible] of $814 70, as being not a just and [illegible]. At about the time the new house [illegible] for this company extra finishing was [illegible] to the wishes of the Council [illegible] standing that the company [illegible] of the same, and [illegible] call upon [illegible] of it. They now petition for relief to the [illegible] of the [illegible] cents. At this time the finances [illegible] will not admit of the passage of [illegible]. While the graves of our lost citizens [illegible] obtain protection from the treasury it [illegible] had to make a demand for such claims as [illegible] Engine Company. At the last meet[illegible] the committee on ways and means [illegible] the subject without recommendation [illegible] of the treasury we also have [illegible] the communication of the City Attorney [illegible] obtained by John R. Garrison [illegible] ages, amounting in costs and all [illegible]. In order to pay this even in [illegible], the city must effect a loan for four [illegible] absolute necessity existing for the [illegible] of the city finances [illegible] large, and the times do not seem [illegible] made any larger.

[illegible].—Very many people now in Oregon [illegible] ask: where is LaRoache? Old Web-foot [illegible] was about the second city laid off [illegible] may be a little out of the correct latitude [illegible], the site is still in existence [illegible] of the Willamette, about eight miles [illegible] was at one time the jealous rival of [illegible] on the metropolis question [illegible] to see the day when it could claim [illegible] northern Pacific coast. Unlike [illegible], the Bell, and Astoria, Le [illegible], Argus, Times, Journal, Mountaineer, etc., to give tone to its existence [illegible], but in after years it became the [illegible] Printer, who headed the wiser [illegible] of the craft, and taking up his [illegible] converted La Rosche into a calf [illegible] it has been known as La Ranche [illegible] as for the whisky it produced in [illegible] it was a violation of the statutes to [illegible] fluid, and the remains of the secret [illegible] may still be seen amidst the [illegible]. Contrary to the [illegible] of the [illegible] the [illegible] of the place finally [illegible] Pacific City collapsed the ancient [illegible]. There now appears to be [illegible], however, of the old [illegible] at Le Rosch has [illegible] in [illegible] last twenty-four hours, in consequence [illegible] of turf, which bears the unmistak[illegible] existence of petroleum, [illegible] to give the mind full [illegible] for [illegible] for its development, and with [illegible] will enter upon the enterprise in [illegible] from failure, [illegible]. Bores, [illegible] all the [illegible] apparatus, will at [illegible] the [illegible] and streams of petroleum [illegible] our very streets.

[illegible].—The steamship Oriflamme, [illegible] last evening, took a large num[illegible] 478 were booked for the voyage [illegible] on board about the time she was [illegible] amount of $339,000 in treasure, [illegible]:

[illegible]	$225,000
[illegible]	75,000
[illegible]	38,000
[illegible]	$338,000

[illegible] 2,000 boxes of fruit, a few bales of [illegible] of produce.

[illegible].—Willamette Theatre was [illegible] by a most intelligent and appreciative [illegible] to witness the panorama of Paradise [illegible] is one vastly interesting, and will [illegible] a second or a third time by very [illegible] seats it will be nec[illegible] to apply [illegible] engaged last evening for the exhibi[illegible] evening. To-night the tableau will [illegible].

[illegible] The attention of the public is directed [illegible] in other columns of this paper of [illegible] estate, etc. Messrs. Kilbourn & Co [illegible] stock to-day. On Thursday [illegible], on Friday two sales and on Satur[illegible] very noticeable feature for the week [illegible] will dispose of a large lot of groceries [illegible], and on Saturday will offer a choice [illegible] to arrive by steamship Sierra Nevada.

[illegible].—The smaller crafts plying on the [illegible] is doing a brisk business in transporting [illegible] and [illegible] to Monticello, for the Puget [illegible] trade. Three hundred sheep were [illegible] Van Bergen's Iron Clad yesterday [illegible] drove of cattle embarking by a flat [illegible] ship yard, in tow of the Web Foot.

[illegible].—The steamship Orizaba was [illegible] at $120,000, and bonded to the [illegible] for that amount until such [illegible] infringement of the revenue laws in [illegible] owning her are involved can be [illegible] United States District Court.

[illegible].—There is at present a vacation in the [illegible] consequent upon the close of the first [illegible] the incompleteness of the new house. The [illegible] this would be the better plan, hence [illegible] school until the completion of the new [illegible] about three weeks—when pupils and teachers [illegible] better attention.

[illegible].—Among the gentlemen appointed [illegible] steamship Orizaba yesterday, was a promi[illegible] keeper of this city. Somebody asked what he [illegible] the cost of a steamship, when somebody else [illegible] he should know—he was interested in the [illegible].

[illegible].—The half mill tax levied and col[illegible] county in accordance with the Act [illegible] regarding the State bounty [illegible] the other counties of the State [illegible] with the law this county is [illegible]. Sheriff Stitzel gives [illegible] the matter.

[illegible] COURT.—Notwithstanding [illegible] Police Court room was [illegible] Judge H[illegible] James T. Ryan, who [illegible] store thief, were each [illegible] drunks were disposed [illegible].

[illegible] SOCIETY.—There will be a meeting this [illegible] at the Congregational Church of the committee [illegible] to assist in procuring employment for the [illegible] girls soon to arrive. The Ward committees will [illegible] the progress they have made in the work.

[illegible] INSTITUTE.—There will be a meeting at the [illegible] this evening, for the admission of signers [illegible] of the Mechanics' Institute association [illegible] the transaction of other business. [illegible] attendance desired.

APPLE BOXES.—There is a [illegible] demand for apple boxes, and that branch of business is now receiving the usual at[illegible] at Messrs. Hurlburgh & Stitzel's mill. During [illegible] three weeks this firm have manufactured 30,000 [illegible] boxes.

[illegible].—A team receiving freight at one of the [illegible] houses on Front street yesterday, for the [illegible] fright and ran away. They made a pretty [illegible] a few blocks, and fortunately did no damage.

[illegible] Lodge, No. 12, F. & A. M. [illegible] on 2d and 4th Mondays of each month [illegible] o'clock, P. M. Brethren in good standing [illegible] to attend. By order of W. M.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AMERICA.—In the conflict now slowly [illegible] in South America Paraguay is pitted against Brazil, the Argentine Republic and Uruguay. The war began by an aggression on the part of Paraguay against Brazil. A Brazilian vessel lying in the port of Assumption, the capital [illegible] was seized by the latter power, while the two [illegible] were at peace. After this outrage [illegible] invaded the Brazilian [illegible]. The Argentine Republic was drawn into the [illegible] Paraguay [illegible] Brazil [illegible] the Argentine Republic was at peace. Thus Paraguay [illegible] herself at war with Brazil and the Argentine Republic. In a short time Uruguay joined the alliance. The first results of the war were in favor of Paraguay, but latterly her forces have been defeated and she will soon be entirely [illegible] whelmed.

Paraguay though nominally a republic is said to have one of the most absolute governments now known. The whole country is under the [illegible] of one man, who [illegible] supreme in his dictatorship. He wields the same power over the people which Dr. Francia, the celebrated Jesuit, possessed. Heretofore Paraguay has been almost wholly closed against all nations. The present war may break down those barriers and open the country to a profitable intercourse with the world. The population of Paraguay is estimated to be only at one million and one.

CHAMP FERGUSON.—This notorious murderer has at last met a felon's death. He has been deservedly executed, [illegible] by all. But we cannot see why he should have been executed while [illegible] rest Mosby and others are still permitted to live. Their crimes are greater than his; the murders they committed equally as atrocious and far more numerous. Let us be thankful however that the world is rid of one of these monsters.

We understand that the [illegible] has entered its [illegible] at Washington for the [illegible] of a new party to be called the [illegible] party—more properly styled the State [illegible] party, with Ben Harding and Nesmith at one end and Haydon at the other. The party is to be run for the benefit of the Salem Olympic circle generally. We predict the bantling will never breathe.

THE NEW MOUNTAIN ROAD.—The new wagon road constructed from Lebanon in this county across the Cascade range to Canyon City is proved to be a success without any doubt or cavil. Bands of cattle, horsemen, pack trains and light teams have frequently passed over it during the summer, but lately emigrant trains and heavy freight teams have successfully travelled it. During the week there have arrived in the county by this road two large emigrant wagons and two heavy freight wagons, which came all the way from [illegible] Canyon City. A party of miners also arrived in from Canyon City on horseback, having been only four days in making the journey. All these parties speak in high commendation of the road, and the miners assert that it is the best mountain road they have travelled. To show the contrast between this route to or from Canyon City in point of time, we will state that while a party of three—Messrs. N. A. Townsend, J. H. Chapman and Frank Vleet—were twelve days in reaching this county from Canyon City by way of the Dalles, another party of four were in Lebanon on the night of the fourth day's travel, over the new road from Canyon City. The road is a success. Now, let our county people use their influence and exert themselves in every practicable way to invite travel over it. Every town and every farmer in the county will partake of the benefit to flow from the opening of this road into the very heart of the rich mining regions east of the mountains. Money expended to improve and keep it in repair is like unto bread cast upon the waters.—Albany Journal.

THE BATTLEFIELD OF ANTIETAM.—The last session of the Maryland Legislature appropriated $7,000 for the purchase of a site for a cemetery on the Antietam battle field in which to place the remains of the men who fell in that ever memorable battle. Through the untiring energies of the Trustees, (especially F. A. Boult of Washington county, Md.) ten acres of ground have been purchased near the bridge where Burnside's troops fought so bravely and within sight of the house where the rebel Gen. Lee viewed the progress of the battle. The ground has been enclosed with a neat fence. The work of interring the remains in the cemetery is now in progress. There are some 7,000 or 8,000 buried in the field. Thus far 2,620 bodies have been identified—1,704 by name, regiment and State and 916 by their respective States. The remains of many others will yet be identified, as the work progresses.

IMPORTANT DEPARTURE.—We are informed that Mr. Babb—the great, all important, high toned, self sustaining Andrew Jackson Babb, chief of the Long Tomers, attorney and counsellor at law and agent of the State Rights Democrat, has left this country and gone to reside awhile in California. What have "sturdy Democrats" done, that they must thus be deprived of their great beacon light, whose departure will leave them to wander in utter darkness, without rudder or compass to guide them by the shoals and quick sands of "abolitionism."—State Journal.

In one village in the Delta of the Nile, celebrated for the cultivation of watermelons, the whole of the inhabitants died during the recent prevalence of cholera. Being unable to sell their fruit they ate it themselves and died to the last man. It was necessary to employ forced labor to bury the last. It is said that in all eighty-two thousand victims of the contagion and bad living were buried in Egypt within six weeks.

THE OFFENSE IS RANK.—We hold it inexcusable in any person, male or female, when they subject us to an annoyance which a very little trouble on their part would obviate. Especially is this the case where the unfortunate possessor of a bad breath will persist in button holding and intruding his views upon us to our manifest mental and physical discomfort. If these good people would use the Sozodont it would not only render them acceptable acquaintances but would at once greatly improve their teeth and breath.

Sold by all Druggists.

Every man of family could save from fifty to one hundred dollars a year by constantly keeping a bottle of Hall's Pulmonary Balsam in his house—as one dose will always cure a cold when it first comes on, thereby averting fever and bilious complaints. It is sold for 50 cents only.

Rebellion in Hayti.

We continental Americans have been so busy with our own rebellion that that one which has for some time convulsed the Republic of Hayti, has not received much of our attention. But that there is quite a serious conflict going on in that little country—a sort of "tempest in a tea pot" it might be called—there is not the least doubt. We don't know why the people of Hayti should have a rebellion, unless it is to throw light upon the much vexed question whether the black man is as capable as the white man; and as that is a question which is somewhat dark, especially on our side, that may be the true reason of the Haytien rebellion.

The Republic of Hayti is situated in the west part of the island of that name, which is second only to Cuba in size among the West Indies. The population is composed almost entirely of blacks, who were formerly slaves, or the descendants of those slaves who successfully rebelled against the French masters and possessed themselves of the country in the time of Toussaint L'Ouverture. The people of the eastern or Spanish portion of the island seceded from the rest of the republic in 1821, were soon afterwards "coerced" by the stronger portion, but finally succeeded in 1844 in establishing their independence and forming themselves into a republic under the name of Santo Domingo. Subsequent unsuccessful attempts were made to subjugate them by Soulouque, who made himself Emperor of Hayti, a la Louis Napoleon, under the title of Faustin I, and the country which was "destined by nature to be one and inseparable," as much as our own—and perhaps more too, inasmuch as it is an island, with such a boundary on every side as even kings cannot dispute—has ever since been two.

Of the Dominican Republic, as it is sometimes called, we do not propose to give any further account, except to say that the people of that portion of the island are a mixed race, and that they have been in active state of turmoil the most of the time since the government was formed, having had no less than four revolutions, all of which were successful, within the past year. A Spanish attempt to subjugate the country has just been given over; the President, Pimental, has been ejected from office, and the country is ruled by General Cabral, as Protector, until the permanent government shall be re-established.

The Republic of Hayti has had a "checkered life." Its constitution was modeled after that civil frame work under which the people of this country live, with the addition of some showy appendages in the way of titles, etc., which are pleasant to the festive sable statesman and courtier. Several Presidents occupied the Haytian palace—we suppose they call it the Black House—until the election elevated Soulouque to that dignity, who declared himself Emperor in 1849, being a trifle ahead of the "nephew of his Uncle" in that business of self-exaltation. But matters did not work smoothly under that rule, and another political revolution stirred up the social caldron, and brought to the surface Geffrad, who held the position of President for life, when the present rebellion broke out a few months ago.

It will be observed that up to the beginning of the present trouble, Hayti had enjoyed rebellion, secession and a coup d'etat, which is as much to brag about as that questionable improvement—a mortgage—that the ambitious urchin claimed for his father's house; and which shows beyond a doubt the black republicans are no wiser than the white ones.

About the merits of the present difficulty it is not an easy matter to decide. To the outside world Geffrad has shown a fair record, having actively promoted progress in education and agriculture; but the insurgents claim that he is a cruel tyrant, that his unjust behavior toward foreigners has been detrimental to the country, and that, as he had declared himself President for life, there was no way to get rid of him but by revolution—the dernier resort of the dissatisfied whether justly or unjustly. The revolutionists are led by a committee of ten chiefs, who have sent a Commissioner to Washington to lay their side of the question before our Government, as the rebel Southrons sent commissioners to England and France. The colored commissioner will get about as little encouragement in Washington as did the white ones in London and Paris, as our Government, which has recognized the Republic of Hayti, will undoubtedly maintain a strict "neutrality," whatever that means nowadays.

The present situation in Hayti is favorable to the government. The rebels have been driven into one town—Cape Haytien—and are, there closely be[illegible]ged by the loyal army. Rumors received of the fighting that has taken place heretofore are conflicting and unsatisfactory; but, as near as we can judge from the information at hand, the rebellion has been on as large a scale, in proportion to the size and population of the country, as our own was.—Boston Herald.

THE BLAIRS.—"Occasional" writes from Washington to the New York Times an interesting account of the secret history of the Blair family. General Jackson caught the elder Blair writing a series of strong political articles for a Kentucky paper, and summoned him to Washington, securing his then [illegible] and vigorous pen for the Government organ. This position he held until Polk superseded him by the imbecile Ritchie. The supersession galled Blair, and led him, in 1848, to throw his powerful influence against Cass, and thus promote the election of Taylor. The "family" supported Pierce in 1852. They soon abandoned his administration, however, assisted in the formation of the Republican party, and engineered the nomination of Fremont. When Mr. Lincoln was elected, a Cabinet seat was demanded for and accorded to Montgomery. His influence secured Fremont to the best position in the army; but he soon quarreled with that unfortunate officer, and was well pleased with his removal. He had a difficulty with Cameron before he had been six months in office. His opposition to Chase took shape as early as 1864. The bitter hostility to Stanton and Holt was prompted by their refusal to be advised to in reference to appointments and promotions. Originally at enmity with Seward, both Montgomery and the father pretended to have discovered their mistake, and to be satisfied with the official policy of that statesman. Himself and his friends, no doubt read with amusement, mingled with [illegible], the bitter onslaught upon him in the Clark[illegible] speech. Generous-hearted President Lincoln vainly tried to keep the irascible Montgomery anywhere within the limits of official courtesy, and his retirement from the Cabinet was a matter of political necessity. It is gratifying to observe that his "universal restoration" speech is everywhere denounced by loyal men of all shades of opinion, and that the arrogant and self-sufficient family is rapidly becoming, by reason of an accurate public judgment, impotent for further mischief.

BELLIGERENT SOCIETY.—Charles and John Kemble were sitting one night in the pit of Covent Garden, listening to a play. Charles remarked to his brother: "I really think this is the best play or representation that Shakspeare ever wrote."

No sooner had he made this remark than a huge, red-headed, broad-shouldered Irishman, who sat immediately behind him, leaned forward and tapped him on the shoulder to secure his attention. "I think sir," he observed with a strong brogue, "ye said it was one Shakspeare what wrought that pay. It was not Shakspeare what wrought that play."

"Oh, sir," replied Mr. Kemble coolly, "very well."

A short time after this the Irishman tapped him on the shoulder again.

"Do you believe sir, it was my friend Linnard M'Nally, what wraught that?"

"Oh, yes, certainly sir, if you say so," was the peaceful answer.

For a while he remained unmolested, but at last he felt the heavy finger once more.

"Your friend that sits on your left hand," exclaimed the Irishman, "don't look as if he believed it was my friend M'Nally what wraught that play."

This was too much for the brothers, they rose and left the house, not deeming it either pleasant or safe to stay in such belligerent society.

CONSOLIDATION OF STEAMSHIP COMPANIES.—The Pacific Mail Steamship Company and the Atlantic Mail Steamship Company having been consolidated—the former pays four millions five hundred thousand dollars for the vessels and other property of the latter. The consolidation forms the largest steamship company in America. It will complete the new plan of operations in a few days. It is understood that the whole number of vessels of the line, on both the Pacific and Atlantic oceans, will be from twenty-five to thirty, among them the following: Atlantic, Baltic, Mariposa, Monterey, Henry Chauncey, Arizona, Montana, Oriental, Constitution, Golden Age, Golden City, Sacramento, Colorado, St. Louis, Sonora, Uncle Sam, Californian, Tobago, New York, North Star, Northern Light, Ocean Queen, Costa Rica, Champion and Ariel. Probably there will be a weekly line to California in the course of this year.—New York Evening Post, Sept. 10th.

There was a handsome but expressive tribute to the great English novelist paid by a little English boy, at service in London whom an unpitying mistress found him reading Pickwick at midnight, and took away his candle. The lad didn't want to live any longer, and within two hours it was found he had hung himself with his suspenders. Dickens should give the boy immortality in his next novel.

REPORT says that John W. Forney's income from the Washington Chronicle and Philadelphia Press is over $50,000 a year.

MAKE FARM LIFE ATTRACTIVE.—[illegible] By hard work. Farmers often undertake [illegible] more than they can do well, and consequently work too early and too late.

2. By more system. The farmer should have a time to begin and stop labor. They should put more mind and machinery into their work. They should theorize as well as practice, and let both go together. Farming is healthy, moral and respectable, and in the long run may be made profitable. The farmer should keep [illegible] stock and out of debt. The farm is the best place to begin and end life, and hence counts in the city and professional life [illegible].

3. By taking care of health. Farmers have a healthy variety of exercise, but too often neglect cleanliness, omit bathing, eat irregularly and hurriedly, sleep in ill ventilated apartments, and expose themselves to cold. Nine tenths of the human diseases arise from cold or intemperance. Frequent bathing [illegible] at the dinner table, and [illegible] need.

4. By adorning the home. Nothing [illegible] a pleasant home. Books, papers, pictures, music and reading should all be brought to bear [illegible] in door family entertainment [illegible] and comfort, order, shrubbery, flowers and fruits should harmonize all without. Home should be a sanctuary so happy [illegible] the children will love it, women delight in it, manhood crave it, and old age enjoy it. There would be less desertions of old homesteads if [illegible] were taken to make them agreeable. Ease, order, health and beauty are compatible with farm life, and were ordained to go with it.

AGRICULTURE NOT LUCRATIVE.—[illegible] Queens, of the Country Gentleman, makes the following sensible remarks:

You quote from the [illegible] this remark that "Agriculture in this country has never been as lucrative as trade." This is an erroneous error. A careful examination made in New York City a few years ago, showed that less than five out of a hundred persons engaging in trade were finally successful, the remaining ninety-five or more ending sooner or later in failure. A similar estimate in Boston made the number three for success, and ninety-seven for failure, so that of a very few traders become ultimately rich, the amount of money made by them in the aggregate is less than that made by the same number of farmers of equal energy and intelligence, when all taken together. In other words, three traders with two hundred thousand dollars each own less property than a hundred farmers of ten thousand dollars each.

But a good farmer need not stop at this small sum. I know of many possessing farms of one hundred and fifty to two hundred acres who clear over a thousand dollars a year, besides comfortably supplying their families. Yet a thousand dollars annually continued forty years, or from thirty to seventy years of age with yearly interest added, with interest on interest, would amount to no less than two hundred thousand dollars—a sum that not a few old farmers have laid up for themselves in old age. Taking a fair view of the subject on both sides, we shall have to admit that farming is the most reliably lucrative.

Notice

To the Tax-Payers of Multnomah Co.

UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE LAWS NOW in force relating to the collection of taxes, all taxes are required to be paid on or before the 1st day of February of each year. If not paid by that time, all real estate, with taxes not paid thereon, will be immediately advertised and sold for said taxes at the expense of the owner thereof, and personal property will be levied upon immediately after the expiration of thirty days from the time of my visit to the precincts for the purpose of collecting taxes.

I will therefore in pursuance of law, meet the tax-payers of Multnomah County at their respective places of voting in each precinct on the following days, to wit:

East Portland, Wednesday, October 25th.
Multnomah, Thursday, October 26th.
Willamette, Friday, October 27th.
Sandy, Saturday, October 28th.
Powell's Valley, Monday, October 30th.
St. Johns, Tuesday, October 31st.
Sauvie's Island, Wednesday, November 1st.
North Portland, Thursday, November 2d.

And at the Court House in South Portland Precinct on any day from the 10th day of October until the first day of February next. I will be there promptly from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M. on the days named.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE,

FOR THE

CURE OF SPECIAL DISEASES,

ARMORY HALL BUILDING,

Northeast Corner Montgomery and Sacramento streets,

ENTRANCE ON EITHER MONTGOMERY OR SACRAMENTO STREET.

DR. PERRAULT CONTINUES TO TREAT PRIVATE AND CHRONIC COMPLAINTS, SCROFULA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE BLOOD, SPERMATORRHŒA, IMPOTENCE, STERILITY.

DR. PERRAULT is a Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and is the ONLY REGULAR GRADUATE who practices as a SPECIALIST in San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT will cure all who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory and Vigor, etc., resulting from injurious habits, contracted in youth, or excesses in maturity, which produce constitutional debility and premature decline.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to disease owing to unskillful treatment and improper use of Mercury.

All cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, Diseases of the Bladder, Gravel, Spermatorrhœa, and Impotence will be cured in a few days, without prevention from business.

To the Ladies.

Ladies suffering from Whites, Falling of the Womb, Suppression of the Menses, or Profuse Flowing, Costiveness, Piles, Weakness of the Back, Pain in the Sides, Headache, Palpitation, and all other diseases to which the female system is subjected, will find prompt relief by addressing themselves to DR. PERRAULT, corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets. Private entrance on Sacramento street.

To those seeking our advice a plain statement of their case will be given, whether curable or not. All cases taken under treatment warranted. No charges for advice. No poisons or harsh medicines to injure the constitution; no making sick to make well; honest in our dealings; frank in our opinions; moderate in our charges. We lay no claim to investigation, claim not to know everything, not to cure everybody, but do claim to reason and common sense, and to cure eight out of ten pronounced incurable.

We particularly request those who have tried this Doctor, and that scientific Physician, boasted and advertised, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. It will cost nothing, as consultations are free.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to DR. PERRAULT, stating their case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc. Letters to be addressed, J. PERRAULT, M. D., corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 975, Post Office, San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT still retains the agency of DR. BIOT'S FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. Their immense sale has established their reputation as the only safe and effectual remedy for all irregularities and obstructions in females, no matter from what cause. On receipt of five dollars, these pills will be sent by Mail or Express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage. se22d4p8m

"CONSTITUTION WATER"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine entitles it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions to the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once braced, revived and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man, he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
